Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

SCIENTIFIC men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 25, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good.

GOV. WORTH'S INAUGURAL ADDRESS.

Delivered in the Presence of both Houses of the General Assembly, in the House of Commons, on the 22d of December 1866.

Gentlemen of the Senate and of the House of Commons.

It is known to you that the pressure of important official duties, for some days past, has left me no time for the preparation of a formal inaugural address.

The orders of Gen. Sickles forbiding our Courts to execute laws which have existed with us and our ancesters for many hundred years, in the face of the previous proclamation of the President, declaring that civil law existed in all the States which had engaged in the late rebellion, astounded the State.

My mission to Washington touching this encroachment on the right of the State to administer her laws, not pretended to be inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, and other imperative administrative duties since my return, have engrossed my attention and left me no time to prepare an address suitable for the occasion.

This order of a military officer, asserting, in effect, his right to amend such of our laws as he may deem unwise, is suspended by order of the President. This arbitrary step is scarcely arrested, when a measure is proposed in Congress, looking to the sanction of this military supremacy over our laws.

In the midst of the progress of these events we are astounded by a proposition, originated by North Carolinians, and brought before Congress under auspices calculated to alarm us, that North Carolina, one of the original thirteen, is no longer a State, but a territory of the United States.

The scheme proposes that a new Convention be called, the members of which are to be elected by voters with qualifications prescribed by Congress, including negroes, excluded from voting by our Constitution. This Convention, thus elected, is to frame a new Constitution for the Territory formally known as the State of North Carolina. The Constitution when formed is to be approved, not by the people, who are to live under it, but by the Congress of the United States, with power in the Congress, to approve, modify, or reject the same; and with a test-oath framed with apparent intent to reverse the principle, that the majority of the people ought to rule.

It is remarkable that the avowed and prominent projectors of this scheme were distinguished actors in the organization of the present State government, and have sought, or hold office under it.

Under these circumstances, I assume by the choice of my countrymen, the painfully responsible duties of Governor of the State, without time, in carefully considered commentary, to review these revolutionary movements.

I can only add to the solemn oath which I have just taken, that feeling profoundly the responsibility of the position in which I am placed by the confidence of my countrymen, I shall constantly and fervently pray that the ruler of the universe will endow me with wisdom equal to the impending emergencies.

I ardently desire, independent of my official oath, to maintain and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of North Carolina, and cannot therefore, assent to any scheme of compromise based on the idea that North Carolina is not a State of the American Union; nor to any scheme of amending the original compact, which the State shall have no hand in proposing. I feel as profoundly as any body can feel, the necessity of composing, on a permanent basis, our national dissentions, and have been unable to conceive of any other means so well adapted to effect this end, as that prescribed by the wisdom of our fathers in the fifth article of the Constitution of the United States.

My intercourse with the people of the North leads me to believe, that the great body of them do not entertain towards us the destroying malevolence, which we would infer from the speeches of many of their intemperate partizan leaders and a portion of the press. The great mass of the nation is patriotic, with becoming charity for what they deem the errors of other sections; but the partizan fury of ambitious demagogues, keeps in restraint the will of the great and well meaning masses. If a national Convention could be called, as contemplated in the Constitution, these masses, as I believe, would fill it with sober, and wise, and patriotic men. In such a Convention, proper concessions would be made to the feelings and views of every section. All could be heard. The spirit of compromise by which the parts of a great nation can alone be held together, would have its due weight. Under the provisions of this article, the amendments to the Constitution which such national Convention might propose, would have no validity until ratified by three-fourths of the States.

If my wishes could prevail, North Carolina would be the first State in the Union to hold up to the nation this constitutional olive branch.

I trust that I need not assure you, that no act of mine, official or personal, under any circumstances, will give any countenance to the paracidal scheme of erasing North Carolina from the galaxy of States of the American Union. In making this declaration, I desire to deny the possible implication that there is, within my knowledge, any other patriotic citizen of the State, who would voluntarily assent to such degradation.

In my very childhood the lessons of parental instruction taught and impressed on my heart, affection for the American Union. The civil war through which we have passed has not erased these impressions. The reflections of riper years but strengthened them. When, in spite of my remonstrances, a sectional war arose, my sympathies and my duty, as I conceived, required me to yield obedience to the de facto government of the section in which I lived; but when the party claiming to fight to preserve the Union prevailed, I gladly renewed my allegiance to the Union, and will not now invite its dissolution by an act of Congress.

My recent intercourse and observation of the pass force me to the conclusion that the main aliment of continued sectional alienation and obstruction "to the restoration of fraternal feeling" which ought to "be the earnest wish of every patriotic heart," is the false and persistent misrepresentation, emanating from bad men in our midst, who seek to make the impression that our Courts and juries, in the administration o Justice, discriminate to the prejudice of Union men and our late slaves.

Notwithstanding the extraordinary efforts of our Judiciary, well known to every body here, to have justice impartially administered, a studied effort is persistently kept up, with too much success, to mislead the minds of well meaning people in the dominant States.

Let us not despair. We still have the Constitution, which, in the language of the great and good Gaston, "with all its pretended defects and all its alleged violations, has conferred more benefit on man than ever yet flowed from any other institution, and which, under God if we be true to ourselves, will insure the blessings of liberty to us and our posterity." If this temple of liberty is to be destroyed, I pray that North Carolina may have no hand in this act of vandalism. Let us in our forlorn condition emulate the example of the present chief magistrate of the nation, who, amidst the tempest of party fury which assails him, firmly steers the ship of State by this chart of our liberties, and is thus inscribing his name high on the temple of fame.

Besides the protection to our constitutional rights, which the Executive may give us, I trust and believe the Supreme Court of the United States, the ultimate arbiter of such questions, arising under the constitution, as can be brought under its jurisdiction, may be relied on for an intelligent and fair discharge of its high functions, and I do not entirely despair that Congress may become better advised, and cease to engender dislike to the Government by unfounded suspicions of our loyalty.

I do not deem it necessary to add anything to my recent recommendations as to our State affairs. All the information I have been able to obtain tends strongly to confirm my recommendation, that we should promptly erect a penitentiary; and that every citizen of the State by precept and example, should encourage domestic manufactures, and to carry out this recommendation as far as I can by example, I appear before you to-day, clothed in the handiwork of North Carolina manufactures, and made up by North Carolina mechanics.

As you are about to leave for your respective homes, I trust you will feel it individually your duty to exhort your constituents to attend diligently and quietly to their respective callings; to offer no opposition to any law, State or National, which they may deem unconstitutional, excepting through the regular channel of the courts; to be diligent in bringing malefactors to justice, and thereby giving security to the orderly.

Gloomy and impoverished and depressed, as are our people, if they continue quietly to discharge all their duties, in the end they may expect the rewards which usually follow well doing.

I avail myself of this occasion to return my thanks to the people of the State for the comparative unanimity with which they have reelected me as their Governor; and I pray God to inspire me with all those qualities of the head and of the heart necessary to perform aright the duties of my responsible position in this trying period of our history.

What news is there from our Coal Fields in relation to petroleum? Will the Greensboro Patriot inform us?—Standard.

The "North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Company" are at present sinking but one well—in Rockingham County. Operatives who have had much experience in boring for oil in Pennsylvania, are sanguine of success. It requires capital to develop oil as well as other interests in the State, and unfortunately those who have the means are not disposed to aid to a proper extent, in driving forward enterprises which would be profitable to themselves and of incalculable benefit to the State and country at large.—Greensboro Patriot.

NEGRO SOLDIERS.—To any one accustomed to attend the morning police court it would seem as if as externally, our negro population had at one time or other, been in the Federal army. Wether it is that the demoralization of the camp has led them to shoulder the vagabondage of the neighborhood, or whether it is owing to the fact that many negro men were disbanded in this section, we will not attempt to say. But we decidedly regret the presence of such an element in our midst.—New. Jour. of Commerce.

1784—1866—THE DIFFERENCE.

We clip the subjoined article from the New York Express of Saturday:

In January, 1784, immediately after the conclusion of peace with Great Britain, Congress passed the following:

"Resolved unanimously, That it be, and is hereby earnestly recommended to the legislatures of the respective States, to provide for the restitution of all the estates, rights and properties, which have been confiscated, belonging to real British subjects. * * * And it is also hereby earnestly recommended to the several States to reconsider and revise all their acts and laws regarding the premises, so as to render the said laws or acts perfectly consistent, not only with justice and equality, but with that SPIRIT OF CONCILIATION WHICH, ON THE RETURN OF THE BLESSINGS OF PEACE, SHOULD UNIVERSALLY PREVAIL."

In 1866,—we have from our Radicals of this day, all sorts of wild, crazy, and revengeful projects, to destroy and to degrade the Southern States. The difference between the Washingtons, the Madisons, the Franklins, the Hancocks, and the Adamses of that day, and of the Sumners, Wades, Stevenses, &c., &c., of this, our day, is marked.

Alas,—there are no Statesmen in the Republic,—no individual man, who can lift himself up above party, and look to his country. There never before was so great a party as the Republican party, without a single Statesman, or a single individual man! The Democrats had their individualities in their Jeffersons, Randolphs, Clays, &c., and the Federalists in their Hamiltons, and Quinceys—but the Republicans have no statesman, no real live man, except Thad. Stevens, in the whole party,—and he was a third rate man in the old Whig party, among the Clays and Websters of this day. There is not a prominent man in the Republican party, in 1866, that dares lift himself up to this Platform of 1784.

BROKE JAIL.—Four prisoners broke out of the Yanceyville, N. C. jail last Friday morning and made their escape. Three of them were negroes, and one a white man, named Oakly, charged with stealing a mule.—Danville Times.

RESPITED.—Robert Davis, freedman, convicted of burglary, at the Fall term of Guilford Superior Court, and who was sentenced by His Honor Judge Fowle to be hanged on this day, has been respited by His Excellency Governor Worth, the day appointed for his execution being Friday the 21st of January.—Greensboro Patriot.

THE SALEM PRESS.—This long established and popular paper has been discontinued, and will be succeeded in a few days by The Salem Observer. The Observer will be under the editorial control of Mr. John H. Boner, a young gentlemen of genius and talent, and the author of several poems of considerable merit.

The white man, named Johnson, convicted at the last Caswell Superior Court of a capital crime that forfeited his life, and who was sent to Alamance jail for safe keeping, has made his escape.—Dan. Times.

Negro Stealing and Burning.

MESSRS EDITORS:—Cannot something be done to check the frightful extent to which these two crimes are carried on; chiefly by vagabond negroes, who are constantly roaming the country, vagabondizing and plundering on all sides, sometime for subsistence, but more frequently for downright robbery and arson.—Those who live in cities and towns have no conception of the vast amount of property thus carried off, in the more retired portions of the State. Let me give you two cases that have very recently occurred in this county, the amount consumed and carried off amounting to many thousands. At the Alveston Plantation, belonging to Mr. T. P. Burgwyn, it having been determined to sell at public auction the crop and other personal property, the overseer made a schedule of what was on hand, and, among other items, estimated the corn on hand at 600 barrels. On the day of sale, only about two weeks subsequent, this 600 barrels was reduced to forty barrels! The night after the sale, a watch was set, who caught some negroes who had actually driven an ox cart up to the barn door and commenced filling it with corn. Of course nothing was done to the "freedmen;" they were too sacred to be meddled with by the vulgar and profane hands of the officers of the law. Last night it was discovered that the large grist mill and cotton gin house of Mr. H. K. Burgwyn was on fire. As no fire is ever allowed near the place, and as a heavy sleet was falling, the owners at once knew that incendiaries had been at their cowardly work. His son, Mr. Geo. P. Burgwyn, jumped on his horse and rode down to the fire to direct the exertions of the people to the preservation of what could be saved, when he met a negro, as he believes, (not being able clearly to distinguish his features,) with a large bundle on his back, that looked as if it might be cotton. He hailed him peremptorily, when the fellow dropped his bag over the fence, sprang over himself and began running, when young Mr. B. drew his pistol and fired five times at him, but ineffectually, and he made his escape, but his bag was recovered and found to contain some 75 lbs. clean cotton. If the villian had been satisfied with his plunder the damages would have been little, but he must needs set fire to the cotton, doubtless to conceal his robbery. Nor is the above a solitary case of arson under similar circumstances; for a recent attempt has been made to set fire to the cotton gin of Gen. M. W. Ransom, which it would seem nothing but the interposition of a merciful Providence, prevented the destruction of the entire establishment with some hundred bales of cotton. I also note the robbery and burning of two horse farms in Caswell county. Now, Messrs. Editors, somtehing must be done by somebody to check this state of things, or we shall be compelled to give up our occupations in the country and leave it, to grow up a tangled wilderness or we must take the matter into our own hands, a contingency very much to be regretted and avoided, if possible. Our present laws or their administration are proved to be inefficient. Permit me most respectfully to suggest that our Legislature, who evidently have sense and patriotism enough to do all their duty and not to go beyond that, should appoint a joint committee of both Houses, to whom the present laws bearing on the subject and the whole matter, generally, be specially referred, with a view to draw up such statutes as may more fully than the present acts, give us greater security to the preservation of the little we can make by our industry and energy, in the present depressed state of the country. The worst feature in this stealing is the consequent burning for the purpose generally of covering up the crime; and the loss by the fire is very far beyond that from stealing in the case of Mr. Burgwyn. The loss is some $12,000, while the amount stolen could not have exceeded $120.

Yours, &c.,
A NORTHAMPTON FARMER.

VALUABLE RESIDENCE FOR SALE

In Warren County.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Warren County at November Term 1866, I shall offer for sale on the premises on Saturday 29th. December 1866, upon a credit of six months, to the highest bidder. The tract of land on which Jackson Pinnell resided at the time of his death, lying and being in the County of Warren, five miles from Warrenton, on the Louisburg road, containing by a recent survey two hundred and forty-three acres, adjoining the lands of John Watson, John Jones and others. The improvements are a two story dwelling with seven rooms and a passage, good out houses, with rock chimneys, good meat house, stables, granery and two large tobacco barns sheded, a first rate apple orchard containing about two thousand young and bearing trees of the most choice kinds, a well of water, also a tanyard with a dwelling attached.

This is one of the most desirable places in the county for a residence, being handsomely improved, in a healthy part of the country and good neighborhood. There is a sufficent quantity of wooded land on the tracts to keep up the plantation and of good quality.

Saturday Evening, Dec. 22, 1866.

Gov. Worth's Inaugural.

The Inaugural Address of the Governor, to-day, will be read with general interest. The peculiar difficulties of the times, only serve to fix the feet of the noble old Roman, more firmly upon the firm rock of the Constitution, and the immovable principles of right and justice.—Never, perhaps, was Gov. Worth more devoted in his attachment to the "Constitution and the Union," than now, and never were his affections more strongly entwined around his native State and people. The interests of all classes and the peace and harmony of the entire country, engage his anxious thoughts and wishes.

Military Commissions.

The decision of the U. S. Supreme Court, on last Monday, declaring the unconstitutionality of the Military Commissions, under which many citizens have been tried and convicted, raises the hopes of the friends of law and order and of the Constitution, and inspires confidence, that that eminent guardian of the Constitution may arrest the march of lawlessness and usurpation, which have unfortunately been engendered, by the late unfortunate war.

An eminent Southern Jurist who heard the opinion read by Judge Davis, pronounces it a most able and clear exposition of constitutional law. We observe it is hailed all over the country as an opportune decision, and one likely to effect great good.

Nothing more clearly evinces the spirit of demoralization which prevails among the party leaders of the dominant party of the country, both North and South, than the bitter feeling evinced by them towards the Court, since the opinion was delivered. The attack of Forney's paper upon the Court, is in his peculiar vein, and foreshadows the beginning of a crusade upon that Court, whose ermine has never yet been soiled, and upon the maintenance of which, rests all the hopes of the friends of American liberty.

CHRISTMAS.—To afford the employees of the Sentinel office the usual recreation during the Christmas holiday's, the Daily will not be issued on next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.—There will consequently be a suspension of next Wednesday's Semi-Weekly and the next issue of the Weekly. HON. A. H. JONES, the member elect to Congress from the Mountain District in this State, and editor of the Hendersonville Pioneer, has issued a petition to Congress to lay off a new loyal State, composed of enough of the Western Counties of this State to form one. Mr. Jones is not satisfied with the empty honor of being a member elect, he is anxious to secure by the aid of Congress, what he can never get again by the votes of the people of that District.

PEACE INSTITUTE.—We are pleased to learn that arrangements are made by which the work on the Peace Institute will soon be revived, and its completion effected in a short time. CAPTIONS.—The Captions of the acts and resolutions passed during the present session of the Legislature, we will not be able to complete until Monday's issue. The small number now in hand, afford such a meagre exhibit of the work done, that we judge it is best to defer until Monday.

DIRECT TRADE.—We are glad to learn that the steamer Brazilian is now in Norfolk loading for Liverpool, and will sail on Thursday next. Parties who desire passage or freight, on early application to Messrs. W. D. Reynolds & Bro., Agents, can be promptly accommodated.

REMARKS OF MR. BERRY, OF ORANGE,

In the Senate, on the 18th inst., on the bill to enable the Western Railroad Company to complete its Road from the Coalfields, in Chatham county, to some point on the North Carolina Railroad.

MR. SPEAKER:—The bill now under consideration, I consider to be a bill of more importance than the title seems to indicate; from the fact that it is one of a series of schemes; the passage of one passes the whole, and before we act on it, it would be well for Senators to consider the scheme, and carefully examine, in detail, before we commit ourselves.—We should first inquire into the financial condition of the State, and the people, and if we make this inquiry it is clear that you will come to the conclusion, that it would not be sound policy to approve this magnificent scheme at present, but wait till the State can recuperate its resources and recover from the stunning blow that has been given to it, by this unfortunate revolution. What, Mr. Speaker, is the financial condition of the State and the people at this time? It is as bad as it possibly can be. The whole currency of the State destroyed, the Banks broken up and cannot, on an average, pay twenty cents on the dollar, and the entire stock of the Banks lost, to the amount of seven million of dollars. This, Mr. Speaker, is a small loss to the loss of our slaves, which, at a moderate estimation, would reach one hundred and forty millions, about twenty millions of stock, the State is in debt thirteen or fourteen millions of dollars, and three-fifths of our people bankrupt. This, Mr. Speaker, is the condition of the State and her population. I appeal to you, Senators, in face of these facts, if it would be sound policy to engage in these stupendous schemes of expenditure. My own judgment dictates to me that it would be a most suicidal policy to the people and the State.—Senators, in face of all these facts, you are called on to act upon a series of Railroad bills, which would involve the expenditure of some twelve or fifteen million of dollars. The first in this series is the Western Coalfield Road. That Company asks of the State to surrender a mortgage that the State holds on the Road and its entire property. The Road cost one million of dollars, the State's interest is six hundred thousand. The Road is well built and well equipped, and if there is any coal or iron in that region, as has been represented, the Road, if properly managed, ought to pay a good dividend. This road communicates with the ocean, and at Wilmigton it can be transported by rail Southeast or North, to the interior of South Carolina as well as our own State, and if the coal and iron can't keep one Road imployed where is the necessity of building two others? The Road running from the North Carolina Road a few miles West of Raleigh is nearly all graded to a short distance of the Coalfieds, and if this six hundred thousand dollars is to be used for any purpose it should be for the completion of this Road.—It might connect with the present termini of the Western Coalfield Road and answer all the purposes of Fayetteville and Raleigh, and would certainly injure the North Carolina Road less than if it connected West of that point. So much for the Western Coalfield Road.

Next in order is the Cheraw and Coalfield Road. This Company asks the Legislature to transfer one million of the stock held by the State in the North Carolina Railroad. This, Mr. Speaker, would be breaking our plighted faith with the bond holders, for the charter not only pledges the faith of the State, but also pledges the stock in the Road for the redemption of the bonds, and any transfer of this kind would injure the credit of the State. This Company asks a further transfer of stock from other corporations to the amount of one million more, making, in the whole, two millions of dollars.

Thirdly, the Wilmington Charlotte and Rutherford Road asks the State to surrender the mortgage the State holds on that Road for two millions. This, with the transfer made to the other two roads, would make four and a half millions. The estimate to complete the road is four millions more, and this would certainly fall short, for they propose to run this Road parallel with the North Carolina Road, in some places not more than fourteen miles apart, and not to connect with that Road, but to pierce the mountains to the Tennessee line, the point not designated. This makes eight and a half millions.

The next grand scheme is the extension of the Western North Carolina Road to Paint Rock, or Ducktown, on the Tennessee line.—This you may put down at five millions more, which will make thirteen and a half millions. This Road asks the State to authorize the Company of the North Carolina Road to mortgage its stock, and thereby violate the plighted faith of the State, which I hope it will never do.—And we are called upon to declare that the bonds issued under the ordinance of the Convention in 1862, for the Chatham Railroad, are valid. And the bonds authorized by act of the Legislature in 1863, the two together, will make a half million more. This makes the aggregate fourteen millions. This estimate, Senators, will fall short of what will be necessary to complete this great work. With these facts before you you will be called upon to decide this matter; and if you should decide to carry out this Utopian project, I fear that the credit of the State will be ruined, and its bonds fall down to a mere nominal value. Before you decide, recollect that it is the duty of this General Assembly to devise some plan that will arrest the downward credit of the State. If you do this, you must provide to raise some two million two hundred thousand dollars in the next two years. It will require that amount to meet the liabilities of the State. I have reviewed the whole scheme in a summary manner. I will now say a few words on the bill under consideration.

Mr. Speaker, the strong appeals that are made by the friends of this bill, setting forth how liberal they have been to works of Internal Improvements in other portions of the State, one not familiar with the subject would suppose that the Cape Fear country had received nothing from the State. Let us examine the Treasurer's report and see how that is. The Senator from New Hanover makes eloquent appeals as the Senator from Cumberland. As to the lower Cape Fear, certainly they have received their portion,—three railroads passing through the city, besides the steamers on the river. Has nothing been done for Fayetteville? The State seldom fails to respond to her call. One hundred and eighty thousand dollars has been appropriated to build plank roads; three hundred and thirty-one thousand to the Cape Fear and Deep River Slack Water Navigation, that proved an abortion. The Legislature was then called upon to aid in building a railroad to the Coalfields. The State responded to the call and loaned the Company six hundred thousand dollars and took a mortgage upon the road and all its property. These several appropriations made to develope the rich treasures of iron and coal in the Deep River country that we have heard so much, for the last ten or fifteen years, amount to one million one hundred and eleven thousand dollars, and the State is now paying an annual interest on this debt of sixty-six thousand six hundred and sixty dollars, without receiving one dollar in return.

It does seem to me, Mr. Speaker, that this bill ought not to pass, and I will say to the Senators in conclusion, that to pass these bills is to assume a fearful responsibility.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND In Warren County, N. C.

ON TUESDAY, THE 2ND DAY OF JANUARY, 1867 the Subscriber, as Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel T Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the House tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands.

One tract containing about 457 acres, adjoining the first mentioned tract on the North, and that of Luke Lancaster on the South. This tract has also some improvements in the way of Negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.

One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract has no improvements, but could easily be put in a condition for cultivation, and is remarkably well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco and Corn.

One tract known as the "Arcola Tract" situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.

The said Tracts of land will be sold at public auction, on a credit of twelve (12) months, with interest from date, and bond with approved security will be required from the purchaser.

The Subscriber will take pleasure in showing the land to any person who may wish to examine it.
